

Here comes the Big Bad Wolf!

Academic Excellence

To be represent and retell the Three Little Pigs story confidently in front of an audience

Perseverance

We will learn how the Pigs persevered in building the most resistant house and how the wolf persevered with his intent even if the outcome was not positive

Outcome

To create a stage and represent the Three little pigs story in front of an audience

Learning to Learn

Our focus thinking tool is:

Idea boxes.

Using our thinking tool to create our setting for our story representation

Concept

Story telling

Materials

Personalisation

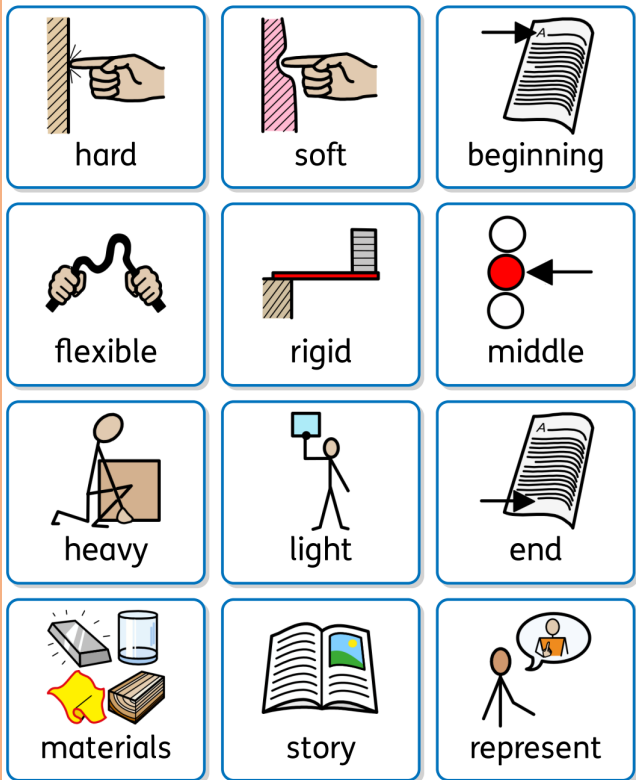

Children will have the chance to explore different materials and experiment with different ways to join them together

Representations

Recall Page

Vocabulary

Knowledge

I will need to know:

- What a story is
- The parts of a story
- What characters and settings are
- What materials are
- Some material properties—hard, soft, flexible, rigid, heavy, light
- How to join materials together

Sentence Stems

This material is...

A story is...

Key Facts

A story tells us imaginary events

Stories have beginning , middle part and end

Stories have characters and settings

Different materials have different properties