How can we entice people to explore UK National Parks?

Academic Excellence

We will learn the knowledge on the 'recall page' and we will be mastering the following skills:

- Present work neatly and effectively to demonstrate learning
- Ask for help when needed
- Take care in creating a good quality outcome

Character

What value am I focusing on and how will I demonstrate it?

Independence - I know how to organise myself at home and at school.

I will show independence in lessons by organising my equipment for a set task.

Outcome – How will our learning be used in real life?

We are going to contribute to an accommodation finding website to focus on the landscape the UK has to offer.

Learning to Learn

Our focus thinking tool is: Socratic Questions—Questions that probe viewpoints.

These questions help us to see problems from different perspectives.

Personalisation

What will help me in this experience?

Use a dictionary to ensure understanding of technical vocabulary.

Research to answer any questions I have.

Use resources available within the classroom to support my understanding.

Rights Respecting

Article 24 - The right to clean water and a healthy environment We will learn more about this right by understanding the importance of having a clean environment that we can explore and why we should strive to protect it.

Concept

Place

I understand that countries are nations with their own governments which are made up of regions.

The Snowdonia National Park

Eryri's (Snowdonia's) landscape is unique. The nine mountain ranges cover approximately 52% of the Park and include many peaks that are over 3,000 feet (915m). Apart from the beauty and charm of its high mountains, Eryri (Snowdonia) is a delightfully varied landscape of steep river gorges, waterfalls and green valleys. Oak, ash, rowan and hazel woodlands are found scattered throughout the Park whilst the beautiful Dyfi, Mawddach and Dwyryd estuaries contribute to the overall diversity of the landscape.
