

Why do Christians perform nativities?

Academic Excel- lence

To understand why the Christmas story is important to Christians.

To understand the purpose of effective communication.

Independence

We will show independence by using effective communication to express myself.

Outcome

To perform the Christmas Nativity in church.

Learning to Learn

Our focus thinking tool is:

Pictorial planning

We will be using pictures to represent the characters and order of the story.

Concept Performance

Personalisation

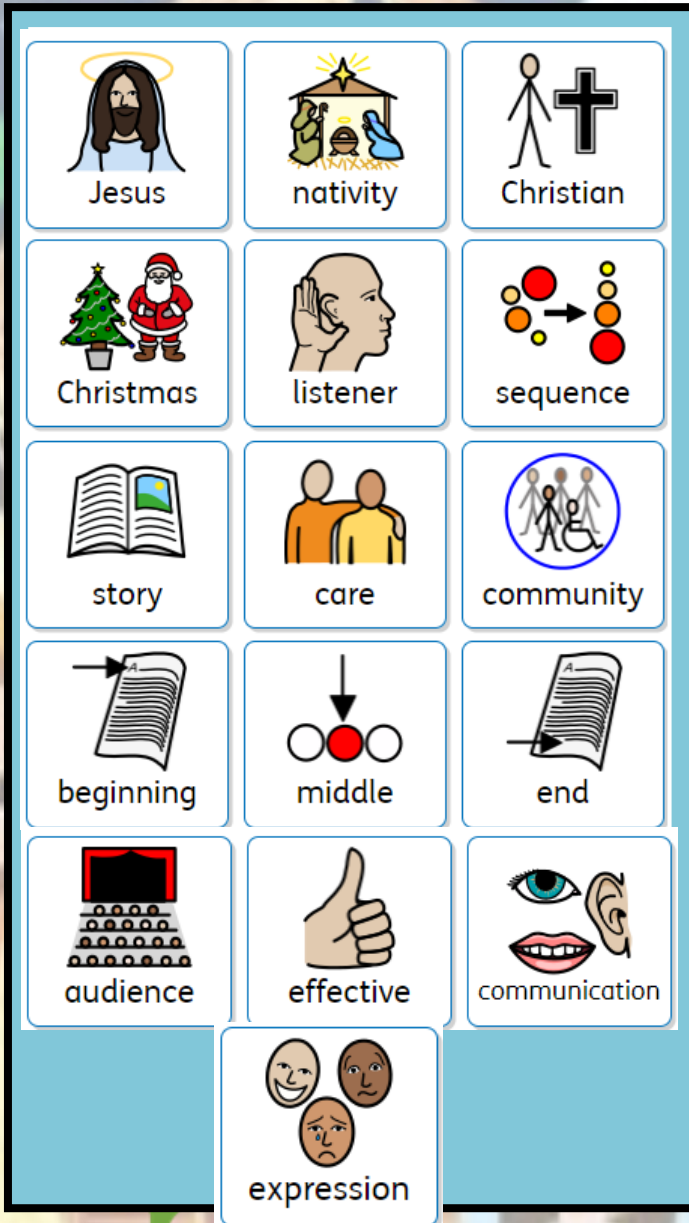

We will be using the tools and resources around us to become effective communicators.

Representations

Recall Page

Vocabulary

Sentence Stems

This is important to Chris-

Features of effective commu-

Knowledge

I will need to know:

- What happens in the Christmas story
- Why the Christmas story is important to Christians
- The features of effective communication
- How to perform to an audience effectively

Key Facts

The nativity is the story of baby Jesus' birth in Bethlehem.

This nativity is important to Christians because it's about the birth of their Savior and Lord, Jesus. They celebrate it at Christmas with

The features of effective communication are making eye contact, standing upright and talking with