How to help your child read this book

This book gives your child extra practice in reading a story that includes sounds he or she has learnt at school.

Ask your child to read the Story Green Words and Red Words below, before reading the story. Do not read the story to your child first. Point to the words as he or she reads. If your child hesitates, help him or her to sound-blend the word.

Re-read each sentence or page to keep the plot moving. Children's attention is focused on reading the words and they find it hard to focus on the story at the same time.

Don't make them struggle too much and praise them when they succeed. Do it all with patience and love!

Story Green Words

Story Green Words are made up of sounds your child has already learnt. This book contains the following green words:

between freezer shed grins
tree sneezes

Red Words

Red Words are harder to read because the letters represent unusual sounds. Ask your child to read the red words, but if he or she gets stuck on a word, read the word to your child. This book contains the following red words:

I you me the of he

Important note

Read stories to your children that are beyond the level they can read for themselves – every evening. They'll only want to become readers if they experience the joy of listening to a range of stories, non-fiction and poetry. Very soon, they will be able to read those books for themselves, as well as listen to them.

Story written by Adrian Bradbury

Illustrated by Pol Cunyat

I am playing 'Can you see me?'
with Dad.

Dad is at the back of the green settee.

But I can see his big feet!

Dad is between the sink and the freezer.

But I can see his knees!

In the shed, it is black.

But I can just see Dad's teeth
when he grins!

Is Dad up the tree?
I cannot see him ...

... but then he sneezes!

Retell the story

Take turns retelling the story with your child.

Questions to chat about

Read the questions aloud to your child and ask him or her to find the answers on the relevant pages. Do not ask your child to read the questions – the words are harder than he or she can read at the moment.

- p.4 What game is the boy playing with Dad?
- p.5 How does the boy know that Dad is hiding behind the settee?
- p.7 How does the boy know that Dad is hiding in the shed?
- p.9 What happens to show where Dad is hiding in the garden?
