

Tuesday 9th February

LO: To use the correct ordinal language .

Show Analysing and Applying

I can retell the story of the Chinese new year using puppets.

I can experiment with different voices for each character.

I can demonstrate my understanding of ordinal language through retelling a story.

First watch Miss Coleman's video

Chinese new year

First with your adult discuss the story of the Chinese new year.

Using the narration skills discussed in the video.

The children will retell the story of the Chinese new year either using puppets, pictures and their voices.

A narrator is the storyteller in a book or movie.
The narrator is the person who tells the story — in other words, she/he narrates it.

Vocabulary
Zodiac sign
Chinese new year
Narration
Event
Characters
Race
Emperor
Storymap
Story
Narrator
Ordinal numbers

Key Questions

What is a narrator?

What are key skills of a narrator?

Can you recall the animals in the story?

Chilli Challenge-
Review your blurb
Is it short?
Does it explain and describe the story?
Does it engage the audience into wanting to read the story?

Can you develop and improve your blurb ?
Or can you justify why you have written a great blurb of the Chinese new year story.

A blurb is the short yet descriptive account of the book that goes on the back cover.
The blurb should include any information that represents the book best and intrigues the readers.

How to be a good Narrator

Tip 1: Practise your reading the script/story.

Tip 2: Speak clearly when telling the story.

Tip 3: Use different voices to represent different characters.

Tip 4: Enjoy what you are reading.

