He talks about how he created the character for his book. Can you follow his method and create your own character for your own book. Once you have created your character you could write a story based on your character. You could even add illustrations!

Challenge 7 (larger project)

Mrs Clarke has a bit of money to spend on new books for the federation. Can you write a piece of persuasive writing convincing her why she should purchase your favourite book.

You could do this in the format of a book review, a video, a vlog or you could research persuasive writing techniques and write a convincing letter.

Challenge 8

Make your favourite book character out of a potato or a wooden spoon. How creative can you be with the materials you have at home?

Challenge 9

Choose a quote from your favourite book and design an inspirational poster for your wall.

Challenge 10

This challenge has been chosen by our Rights Respecting Ambassadors. They would like you to create a video about your favourite right/ rights. You could also explain what rights are.

We would love to share it on our website so that we can tell more children about their rights😊

Article 1 – You have the right to know your rights!
